Waking early daybreak rain,
Before night her dream can claim –
Windows stream life dripping,
Out a fractal shadow slipping.

hARD memories chilling fears,
SPIRIT OF SPRING forgiving tear –
Chrysalis open rivers mend,
World stirs begins again.

Silently moving holding on,
Glacier melting capricious dawn –
Half believes meek inherit the earth,
Universe throes of giving birth.

So where off to Saturn asks,
Her jobs helping with your path –
Says your fortunes buried deep,
Life a chance a lovers leap.
