Spring morning summer afternoon,
Prickly pear saguaro bloom,
Buzzing bees gathering clouds –
Every kind of fragrance God allows.

Venus made sure you'd be good looking,
Dig music love gourmet cooking,
Moonlight gave mythic alibi –
Earth born guardian of butterfly.

Maybe seen him dressed to the nines,
Or pulling weeds least a couple of times –
Thinking intuitive feeling brotherly,
Timeless stardust garden ancestry.

Deeply rooted self-consciousness,
Sparkling clean never leaves a mess –
Would you for the children ask,
Wholly change the world at last.
