

A ****

Deep in a fractal forest clearing,
The world astir thunder nearing –
Child of the Sun jaguar bold,
Golden hearted truth be told.

Adding up what's coming down,
Electrified air gathering sound,
Placing possibilities over shadows –
Telling everything he knows.

Eyes that only Love can bring,
Rising now on falcon wing –
Canyonland vistas, galactic cruises,
Creative, assertive, does as chooses.

Then in a burst of searing light,
Saturn sends you this insight –
"Pay the price, don't count the cost,
Be a Savior or Earth is lost."
