SUMMER heart CORN tasseling sky,
PRAIRIE wheat fields sunflower sigh –
Well read moon august eyes,
Serving others on the rise.

EVER the leader feeling kind,
TRUSTS himself exercises mind,
Individuating clarifying fiery words –
Olive branch different bird.

MEADOWLARKS swear a miracle,
Careful assertive empirical –
Stretching reality's torn borders,
From eternity time from chaos order.

NIGHT descends mountains near,
Only one way there from here –
Hard road where you might get stuck,
If you're strong the worlds in luck.
