Stoned soul picnic garden wait,
Grapevines entangled golden gate,
Forest lakes rippling moonlight –
Said he'd be here after midnight.

Patient definitive understanding,
Easy going never demanding,
Great at cooking cleaning kissing –
Without him earth with sun missing.

World of sorrows too many to mention,
Humans in conflict hunger tension,
Did you ask what was it he wanted –
Caring happiness love undaunted.

Self organizing creative heart,
Analytical mind leading part –
Knowing sometimes you take a chance,
If you stand for something choose to dance.
