With all its wonder autumn tried,
Seashores too and mountainsides,
Stars and moon none could guess –
How you arrived at this address.

Energetic heart resolute will,
Committed relationships deepening still,
Swimming swan lines on the lake –
At the table rising stakes.

Macrodrاما in microtheatre,
Concerned like everyone getting later –
Teacher of lessons learned from skeletons,
Our debts she says transcend gazillions.

Was that a dove cooing this morning,
Or sister owl giving warning –
Saturn suggests time we get down to it,
Flowers modeling how to do it.
