Winter begged your spirit bring,
Wakefulness the mountains ring,
Intelligence emancipated –
Transformative powers understated.

Echoes Medea in a twist time takes,
All the difference in the world she makes –
Goodness as would Jane Austen write,
Scheherazade tell a desperate night.

Milkyway daughter incarnate change,
Talking way beyond new age range –
Nothing approaches your real worth,
Taming the sky lighting the earth.

Strong minded watchful eye,
Not likely to quit break down cry –
Your moonlight family ocean home,
One place where you're never alone.
