Indigo soft mountain breeze,
Moon entangled wintered trees,
Swirling borderless community –
World offering unity.

Wildly strong madly intelligent,
Spirit shifting confident –
What Venus meant by dedication,
Committed creative cooperation.

Mind changer ending our sorrow,
Shaping today envisioning tomorrow –
Moving or waiting in the hall,
Worries memories problems and all.

Can't say you never wished for change,
Dared the unknown embraced the strange –
Somewhere in your subconscious,
Key to a planet born of carefulness.
