Gathered from shy forest flowers,
Morning light the waking hour –
Edge the sea pristine sands,
Temple moments forgotten lands.

Living rivers through her world,
Raindrops mushrooms fern frond swirls,
Cats in windows waves in crest –
Envisions humanity at its best.

Fairytale places changing times,
Galactic garden tomorrow mind –
Quiet hero patient friend,
Delivering gifts that never end.

Never leaves on dusty shelf,
That note she'd written to her self –
Whatever others say or do,
To your calling be always true.
