

A ****

From distant mountains coral seas,
Learned of suffering bended knees –
Proverbial melody love inspired,
Waves breaking wind desired.

Late nights cold rain,
Walking hitchhiking hopping train,
Knows the score no complaints –
Seen devils searching for saints.

Treasures family summer memory,
True vocation heavens emissary –
Round the fire on the beach,
Bringing paradise within reach.

Why stay honest keep a balance?
Invisibilities inhabit circumstance.
Watch your dreams and coincidence –
If you need more evidence.
