Things you think all you do,
Difficult not to fall in love with you –
Honesty Justice Equality aligned,
Utopian visions pure goodness in mind.

Wind Spirit neath a wintry sky,
Change everything blink of an eye –
Universally kind Venus strong,
Taking us where we belong.

In you the mountains the clouds rejoice,
Words for the speechless winged a voice –
Inventive imaginative intelligent soul,
Feeding the hungry making us whole.

“Keep your Balance,” Saturn reminds,
“Stay truthful about the times,
Even the moon needs your love,
Might be an angel from above.”
