Searching eyes in windows yearn,
Promised hour winds return,
Humankind's unforgotten dream –
Closer than it ever seemed.

Day disembodied prophets told,
Eden reopens wings unfold –
Deaf hear blind have sight,
Lamb with lion lay the night.

Forests of pine and fir bend low,
Shadow matters stir below –
Madmen rave foundations shake,
Death unravels nature wakes.

Eschewing hierarchy the limousine,
Reaching for fairness in our in-between –
Honesty helps him see it through,
Deepest wishes all come true.
