Buffed waves a winter beach,
Winds from a sacred place beseech,
The sands the sea the clouds above –
Change the narrative to one of love.

Somehow born with messianic attitudes,
About as logical as Christs beatitudes,
Tao Te Ching and Heraclitean intentions –
Thinks we're more than four dimensions.

Imagines a world of serve one another,
Give more than take from each other,
Only our sharing ways leave the same –
Visions the sign system left un-named.

Saturn says your key is Care –
Do you pearls or moonstone wear?
Yes or no the nest needs cleaning,
Dust lies thick on cobwebbed meanings.
