

MARCUS

Threads of lightning oceans edge,
Swallows cavort wind driven ledge –
Back across the turbulent field,
Horsemen sudden turned and reeled.

Through eternity pathway'd curled,
Unbelievable miracle world –
Galactic offspring revolutionary creature,
Utopian minded healer teacher.

Food for the hungry meaning for reason,
Overture the changing season –
Forgiveness compassion eyes of dream,
Limitless kindness Love episteme.

Life as service friendship as art,
Offering humanity a brand new start –
When Wealth asks, "What's the price?"
Firekeeper answers, "You sacrifice."
