

Sarah

Changing eyes gossamer wings,
Wind in hair opal rings,
At the crossroads wonder and wary –
Either a human or some sort of fairy.

Transforming holding helping hands,
Sprinkling stardust grains of sand,
Recreating what successful means –
Utopian visionary mountain dream.

Polite cooperative working overtime,
Thoughtful reasoning inventive mind –
Morning brings her snowfield moonlight,
Carefully making all things right.

Beginnings always up to her –
Whether start how give a stir,
Lovingly one more time reach out,
To the possibility life's about.
