

SARAH

Lavender wind mountains swirled,
Rock tempo forever young world –
Sapphire presence sparkling power,
Lotus blossom hydrangea shower.

Womankind grown smarter,
A new imaginary just for starters –
Revolutionary type butterfly kind,
Comforting spirits changing minds.

No doubt someones special friend,
Elusive beginning transcending end,
Arm o'er your shoulder at the beach –
What more would you wish in reach.

Ever wonder what really happens,
How she manages moments open –
Good intentions aren't the thing,
The actual gift herself she brings.
