Milky Way eyes summer world,
Mother warmed morning pearled –
Shell breaking open membrane torn,
Growing struggling being born.

Hearts locked she holds the key,
Cradling arms healing esprit –
Meadows wander beaches comb,
Loves making places home.

Dusk to dusk water lily kisses,
Sheltering nurturing dragonfly wishes –
Compassionate responsible intelligent,
Flesh and blood benevolent.

Lifelong companion pure human,
What we need here being woman,
Gives the soup an emphatic stir –
What do you think? Sound like her?
