Factoring the Sun into your magnitude,
Your gifted mind, your mid-day attitude,
The jazz in the background, the rock n' roll –
You're definitively loving referential.

You take the road beyond appearances,
Praise the quantum relative differences,
Everything totally, adequately, completely –
Clarity of speech adding up to sweetly.

Twenty-four karat gold one part,
The other a son of one great heart,
A topaz summer bright soft sunset –
And we haven't even started yet.

However as it just so happens –
The systems gotten a bit mishapen,
And Life's in need of a real-live savior,
Would you please do us all a favor?
