

T*

A warm and glowing summer presence,
Pure golden mother's essence,
Sisters wishes the rain has grown –
Everywhere at home.

Where'd you hide your delphineum hat,
Your fairydust and all of that –
Inside moonlight beneath the water,
You're the ocean's magic daughter.

You have to say it very clear –
In your audience eyes of deer,
On a beach the ocean breaking,
Waves of you our hearts awaking.

You've an important message to bring –
In words, the song that meadowlarks sing,
The field of vision they have in mind,
The kinetic organic unchained kind.
