Crossing bridges dreamers paint,
Strawberry minded living saint –
Self same soul changing face,
Exiled hero nailed in place.

With us mornings fog and rain,
Before our sufferings given name,
When fishes crawled out from the sea –
All traces of eternity.

Whitecaps lapping tree lined shores,
Teenage love turned evermore –
Living for others thinking connection,
Lotus flower resurrection.

Altruism forgiveness letting go,
Ghost of Albinoni's Adagio –
A simple key putting first things first,
For leadership we hunger thirst.
