Some for water all for story thirst,
Some tell you raining from the first –
Was it butterflies brought you here,
Or moonlight river crossing deer.

Merciful eyes cradling arms,
Global family altruistic charms –
Chopin appeals firebird pleads,
Voice our planet nest in need.

Warm compassionate tree-hugging kind,
Dream connection making mind –
Walking beaches children in hand,
All those castles in the sand.

Recipe calls for lightning and stir,
Mix in all the words for sure –
Fold in logic adapt and write out,
The unbelievable bring about.
