Enchanted heart elfin eyes,
Quick with words strong and wise –
Hears justice honesty calling,
Leaves wishes stars falling.

A story slipped between the lines,
Raindrops snowflakes frameless times –
Hard at work where diamonds won't,
Stepping stones of dos and don'ts.

Passion of existence Being together,
Into all that can't be measured –
Mystical secretive inspiring eloquent,
Laser minded ineffable element.

One question however remains the same –
Who's the savior / what's your name,
To turn the cheek and not look back,
To pay the price and not keep track?
