The spotlight shifts the stage stirs,
Secrets to tell the audience sure,
Easy part just be who you are –
Indigo iris evening star.

Woods clouds seas beloved,
Mysteries below the moon above,
Branched lightning autumn trees –
Alive with family memories.

Winged drama soaring soul,
Kindness warmth changing role –
Quiet rushes thoughts of home,
Heard the wind the children moan.

Back again to your timeless key,
Or who you'll be for eternity –
Please show us what your heart can do,
The place your love can bring us to.
