Night breezes carrying everglade egrets –
You've been making some wild wishes,
Coming true in hugs and kisses.

Part familiar part transforming story –
A quantum leap beyond yesterdays glory,
Swimming the edge of visibility,
In the moonlight unbelievable magically.

A post-modern mystery a many angels delight,
Living all breathing through the night,
Your favorite twist no one guesses –

Now to get to what everyone knows –
Whatever it is with you it grows,
In mega watts of cosmic confluence,
And rock and roll me innocence.
