Pearled clouds red slice of sun,
At a horizon history'd spun,
Freely gathering finely cast –
Creating memory meant to last.

Altering identity defining worth,
Courting harmony peace on earth –
Honest with self personally evolving,
Coded conflicts undreamt resolving.

Planetary theatre hologram soul,
Finding broken making whole –
Sharing blood all the same bones,
Crossing time on stepping stones.

Encrypted mystery divine in a word,
Key's cleaning up this mess absurd –
Cure the world of rank and privilege,
Provide each child an equal advantage.
