Lavender sky magenta night,
Friendships glow campfire light –
Clouds fantasies billowing time,
Every one their storyline.

Arches mesas face to face,
With you angels favorite place –
Mantle of moments eternity's door,
Arizona sunset desert floor.

Always did think for yourself,
Tiny things keepsake shelves –
God only knows what you can do,
Goal forevermore up to you.

To the point your gentle daring,
Vision a politics based on sharing –
Depends on what you deem possible,
How much you testify we're capable.
