Born perfectionist broken world,
Mind for finding the patterns swirl –
Caring cooperative nurturing side,
Transformative goals far and wide.

Patient firm worried teacher,
Sensuous critical honest creature –
Would make a place for everything,
Garden tender crickets sing.

Needle threading trustworthy friend,
Thinking round every next bend,
Likes it peaceful balanced free –
Got this crush on equality.

Did I mention patriarchy?
How more difficult could it be?
Yours to climb mountains metaphorically –
Or scale bean stalks allegorically.
