

like this before

we can do this we've done things like this before when given to desire goodness for beloved or the chance to help in time of disaster what risk not taken, price not paid it may have taken courage and large servings of kindness random acts of Personal creativity that changed everything in other transitions out of crises taking us places only dreamt before wild ones approach ask of our untried wings veins of understanding have we yet weighed the urgency of their Paradise lost the press of Evolution
