warm rain reaches deep underground each heart secrets hope birds sing, butterflies emerge, flowers bloom stamen pistil scented petals invite favorite dream every creature, plant, every living thing, every society... every complex adaptive dynamic system is nested the Human Spirit nests in shadows in the Mind of the Universe in the Mind of God

in a natural intelligence.

The Self-as-Separate Narrative is easily discredited.
We can re-think the advocacy of some having power-over-others.
    Leave behind some lavishing in wealth while others go hungry.
A true democracy means true Equality — opens us to the horizon of our Possibility means the Freedom to create the World all our Hearts desire; means Earth being healed from the abuse of the early anthropocene, Humanity turning to Justice, Peace.

Heaven waits on the sacrifices only millionaires and members of the upper-class can make waits on the difference only you can make waits on the unbelievable no need to list all that could be done what you choose to do, adds to it
