pray tell

what have you in mind if you could choose to be some place forever what would your Eternity look like would black dragonflies cross our late day walks together would Life be everywhere would there be nests among the wilds soft winds caress the meadow mountains secret forest lakes would riverbeds host slippery rocks spring orchards bloom would swallows fly the same would paradise have high-rises, cars, phones, airliners, yachts... would we come in every size, shape, color... each of us Living in unique ways seeing things as only each of us can see them would there be music, culture, art would dust still scatter sunlight into holographic sunsets would your World talk with you daylight know your cares would the Sea remember your name what would happiness mean
