

trust

if closer to free — none can do without then trust is the key that can open ways of thinking cut through chains of signifiers bring us through walls
cross chasms

as in the courage of the Quarks who first dared to share, creating Relationships that endured, beginning the Universe; as intuited by the Long Chain Polymers, whose altruism opened Existence to the Biosphere;
as shown in the confidence of the Spirochetes and Purple Oxygen Breathers, who sacrificed former identities and became the Nucleated Cell, enabling coherence across virtually infinite parts. Multi-organelled creatures.

trust sparks a moment's epiphany keeps us close across the quiet distance searches for meaning in suffering and tragedy envelopes the purpose of each our lives Resilient. Visual. Tangible. trust invites a wished for future testifies on your behalf states you're not alone

trust strengthens the baby's clutching fingers Our World, Societies, People depend on trust.
Trust makes the dream yet imaginable — so at this Pathway's End with trusting eyes we turn to One Another; and to the Billionaires and Millionaires, who influence the legislators, make the laws, own the media...
Free choice makes Love possible;
and so the World all our Hearts desire.
