

GARY

What words for someone wild as you –
Takes yesterday makes it new,
Answers every desperate call,
Locked up? Walks through walls.

Winter wheat would know to say,
Up from underground one sure way –
Family gatherings summer sun,
Come autumn feeding everyone.

Leaves esteem your possibilities,
Chocolate covered responsibilities –
Inside your heart heroic stuff,
Torque and tach more than enough.

Something the manual forgot to mention,
That place you just can't get a wrench in –
When you gotta do the unbelievable,
Trust conceives the inconceivable.
