Friday evening never too soon,
Waiting sevenish all afternoon –
Taste of what the garden means,
Cayenne cinnamon chocolate dreams.

Born of earth inspired by care,
Puddle patterns fragrant air,
Early morning magnolia flowers –
Charm a late spring summer shower.

Whirled of sensate information,
Seasoned visions imagination –
In that moment here on earth,
Deciding sacred gardens worth.

Ocean roots celestial sight,
Curled up dimensions post-modern light –
Saturn asks personally speaking,
What are you / the humans seeking?
