

Nabihah

LeaVe it to Earth to find a way,
Deliver what words craved convey –
As each twig, bud, petal dares,
Orchards in full bloom fragrance the air.

Spring tenderness, seedling bold,
Green grasses midst last year's gold –
The World alive again, rivers run,
Emerging cocoons painstakingly spun.

Practical, logical, inextricable,
Desire to help irresistible –
Bees, blossoms longing for hours,
Until the snowflake petal showers.

Orawn to family like tides the Moon,
Scientists telling us we have to act soon –
Respond to the problems we face together,
Competition, hunger, global weather.
