Climbing hillsides where Oaks abide,
Unwavering Will once you decide –
Heaven in hand, wrapped in thought,
Precious wild flowers, childhood sought.

The Golden Rule, Kant's Imperative,
Human Possibility vs Ego Narrative –
Orbiting a Star in ten fractal dimensions,
Evolved Responsibility, Matured intention.

Sweet, spontaneous, not easily swayed,
Not going to disappear nor likely fade –
A new Mindedness, acquired, learned,
Not a product that gets returned.

You've an idea of what Life is worth,
Landscapes, Lifeforms, Commune with Earth –
Self-interested ignorance and now misdeeds,
Have the World calling in desperate need.
