

Robin

A cappella garden song,
Mornings exactly where you belong –
Inviting sweetness calling friends,
Random beginning complex end.

PRACTICAL minded emergent seedling,
Story teller unconceding –
Waking meadows joys desires,
Delicate scylla wild fires.

Not always easy to be your self,
Promises not meant for the shelf,
Exquisite chapters sapphire sands –
Moon says travel Mars distant lands.

SATURN hopes among your narratives,
Trust grows possibility lives –
Answering questions deep within,
Taking us where losing wins.
