MORNING wakes with sandhill crane,
Calling echoing love's refrain –
Purple / yellow / moon white crocus,
Life pushes up / Earth into focus.

INVITES to listen / engage in synergy,
Where others say can't / you see possibility –
What seeds to choose sweet gardner,
Which trees flowers vegetables partner.

PRACTICAL / intuitive dash of adaptable,
Chaotic complex rendering understandable –
Midst all this epochal moment delivers,
We need your help getting 'cross this river.

SURELY you've heard the rumor going round,
Nothing's sacred / dollar battleground –
Some say it's whatever you believe,
Others a world of compassion conceive.
