Deep in a fractal forest clearing,
The world astir thunder nearing –
Child of the Sun jaguar bold,
Golden hearted truth be told.

Adding up what's coming down,
Electrified air gathering sound,
Bringing love out from shadows –
Possibilities his heart knows.

Eyes that only Love can bring,
Rising now on falcon wing –
Canyonland vistas galactic cruises,
Creative assertive does as chooses.

In a burst of searing light,
Saturn sends this insight –
"Pay the price, don't count the cost,
Be a Savior for the children lost."
