Light seeps heavens woken,
Sun edges earth's shell opens,
Unlike any other dawn –
Would afternoon again the faun.

Beloved guest planetary mate,
Patient leader galactic gate –
From chaos into complexity,
In search of authenticity.

Stardust soul analytical mind,
Independent socially inclined –
Moral beauty shining through,
Human goodness proving true.

Gold fills the celestial vaults,
Worlds cradle nears default –
Question is our destination,
Paradise or alienation?
