

Maggie

Summer twilight softly settles,
Daisies fold their telltale petals –
Venus joins you in the MIRROR,
Friends for life perfectly clear.

Lion and lamb / night and day,
No one tells you what to say –
Unmixed palette / no blurry lines,
Just who's needed in scary times.

Behind the wheel / doing the driving,
Destination horizon arriving –
Careful words / wild laughter,
Garden memory forever after.

Sweet the savior you can be,
If the price be paid graciously –
Creating a reality wholly undaunted,
The Peace on Earth everyone's wanted.
