Amanda

It's well known that you can wish,
On falling Stars before they vanish –
Pointing to meaning and something more,
Enfolding what you came here for.

Animal loving, lightning Mind,
Ticket to travel every place and time –
Revering mystery, dark matters, unknowns,
As for decisions, each always your own.

Fiery honesty, playful balance,
A friend transforming happenstance –
Kindest of characters, unsecret mission,
Beyond an inkling the Planet's condition.

A wonder it could come so unscripted,
Baffling scenes, everything encrypted –
Lucky for us you're here by our side,
Information bearing trustworthy guide.
