

Joe

Working on that change to come,
Real deliverance, nothing can fathom –
Healing hearts, drying tears,
Helping others all your years.

Aworried wind's blowing everywhere,
You keep climbing Heaven's stair –
Envisioning altruism, Love cascading,
Get-for-yourself rapidly fading.

Out improbable circumstance,
You get how we'd rather dance –
Persistent, serious, endless kind,
So not quitting / a platinum mind.

Asking the purpose or about the means,
Down beneath what something seems –
Saturn advocates patience and care,
As long as you want to take us there.
