If we could see the world as magic,
Mystery bordering party and tragic,
Stage like ancient bard suggests –
Place our dreams love could nest.

You'd be one ask different questions,
Unpack scripts talk meta-intention –
Lightning flash the path we're on,
String hope New York to Babylon.

Strong inspiring mountains agree,
Calling pointing to what could be –
Everything making unexpected sense,
Success good fortune coincidence.

Insightful nature smile contagious,
Longed for story super courageous –
Friends with Pegasus crossing the sky,
Gratitude awareness baby you fly.
