Fairy tale ballroom masquerade,
Unrecognized til a kiss betrayed –
Fire dripping through a sky turned dim,
Space debris celestial hymn.

Street smart university wise,
One thing certain full of surprise,
Thick with mystery can't forget –
Luck friends winning bets.

Moon long gone coyote tamed,
Slipped out the harbor turned un-named –
As would anyone given wings,
Mind the play tomorrow brings.

Tularosa valley sunset mind,
No foil for what you might find –
Standing up turning on the light,
Leading us out this unholy night.
