The road winds turns spiraling stair,
ASTIR WITH FRAGRANT OCEAN AIR –
The sea takes wing/the sky bends,
Lambs/cliffs/hillsides blend.

Venus rocks the fairytale scene,
In light a new love's in-between –
Down the steps as the last chimes struck,
Who could believe that kind of luck.

Ready smile/friendship/laughter,
Equality a must your forever after –
Probably something you already knew,
Given the dreams you've made come true.

Waves break on down the beach,
Entangled in the sea's long reach –
Powerful change maker who you are,
What possibility wish on a star.
