

KITARO

Opens the door a single knock,
Welcoming gifts OaLi clocks,
Unexpectedly changing minds –
Messianic idea human kind.

Escorting you along the ridge,
Holds your hand across the bridge,
Carries water for the garden –
Unafraid to beg Gods pardon.

Post-doc studies pine forest school,
Honesty and altruism self chosen rules –
Feeding the hungry drying tears,
Rose bushes where once grew fears.

Imagine the authenticity,
Purpled biological integrity –
If harmony with nature we should reach,
Equality enact freedom teach.
