

Rhiannon

No one knows the paths Love takes,
Day hour the water breaks –
Or when from wings in grand jetés,
She turns stardust cross the stage.

Resurrects memories / scrolls unfurl,
Easier stop spring waking the world –
Dragonfly river butterfly entwine,
Garden savior / bread and wine.

Purple velvet altruistic petals,
Forgiving rain sunlight settles –
Forest nook dream cascade,
Jamaican paradise escapade.

Aware steps no one else can take,
Dance moves only you can make –
The operative term's "definitive,"
Alter the failing master narrative.
