

Teresa

Change the world if only she could,
Make it just like heaven would –
Friendship encouragement smiling kindness,
Enthusiasm altruism other mindedness.

Mountain tops where she likes to go,
The innocence freshly fallen snow –
Thinks with a logic all life shares,
Offers her hand take you there.

Clouds meanwhile begun to rumble,
Thunder rupture skies tumble –
Mother bird porchlight nest,
Gathers babies 'neath her breast.

Welcomes you holds open the door,
Knows its love all come here for –
Still a long list of things to do,
Communicate adapt travel, too.
