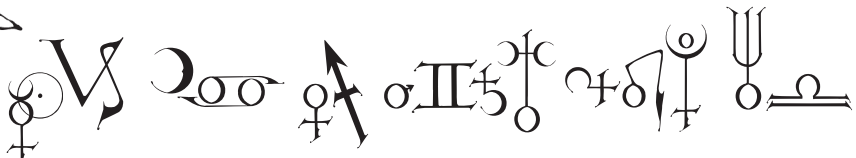
Dottie



Fractal shoreline winters will,
Streets turned quiet sidewalk still,
Snowflakes drift the frozen river –
Touch the sacred night delivers.

Reliable worthy best friend trust,
Responsible does what she must –
Jewelry case in-laid flowers,
Sit and talk with her for hours.

Dedicated late long nights,
Warm soft living room light –
Mind professorial beauty heretical,
Most men find incomprehensible.

Jade steps marble floor,
Promised mythic distant shore,
Along with other things that stay –
Would she the chance to have her say.
