Day broken, the horizon aglow,
Mountaintop to the valley below –
Swaying trees, tingling chimes,
Synchronicities, changing times.

Enlightenment Minded no words suffice,
A lot of time contemplating Paradise –
Safety nets, Community, Nature cared for,
Peace and Happiness, FOREVERMORE.

Must be close to that Promised Land,
Self-as-Separate proclaiming it banned –
Choosing Integrity, content over hype,
Human being, evolutionary type.

No one imagined the night this long,
That the story could spiral, go so wrong –
Count on the Universe helping You,
Not easy what you want to do.
